INDEX
OF
COLONIAL AND STATE
LAWS
OF NEW JERSEY

Entered according to an Act of Congress, in the year 1905, by

JOHN HOOD,

In the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington.

PREFACE.

In offering this work to the members of the Bar, and to the public, the Compiler desires to say a few words in explanation.

Originally it was the intention to compile an index to the Colonial and State Laws of New Jersey, similar in style to Hood's Index of Corporations, but after considerable labor bestowed upon it, the act directing the State Treasurer to purchase a certain number of copies was amended in a manner requiring the form of the work to be changed. Under these circumstances the present plan was adopted in the first edition of the Index (from 1663 to 1877), and although it was at that time found to be a task far more arduous than was at first anticipated, the same plan has been followed in this edition.

Such of the Colonial Laws as could be, are arranged alphabetically, while others are arranged chronologically; the laws from 1776 to 1903, inclusive, being arranged alphabetically, both as to heads and the matters upon which they treat, so far as the same could be done.

Under the Constitution of 1776 the Laws are designated by Sessions and Sittings, which was required from the fact of there being several Sessions and Sittings in some instances during the same year, and in order to preserve uniformity in the work, I have designated those enacted under our present Constitution as Legislature and Sessions.

The arrangement of the work is as follows:

- | | |
|--|--|
| No. 1. COLONIAL LAWS. | No. 4. REVISION OF 1846. |
| No. 2. STATUTE LAWS. | No. 5. REVISIONS OF 1874-1875. |
| No. 3. REVISION OF 1821. | No. 6. REVISIONS OF 1877 AND SUPPLEMENT OF 1886. |
| No. 7. GENERAL STATUTES OF NEW JERSEY OF 1895. | |

In treating of such a wide variety of subjects and covering an extended period of time, (two hundred and forty-one years), the great difficulty of indexing the several acts under appropriate heads had to be met; and although the Index is not claimed to be infallible, it is believed to be generally correct, as the Compiler, with the assistance of C. Chester Craig, Esq., has taken the utmost care to make it accurate and reliable.

JOHN HOOD.
